

Apple Pay - iPhone - iOS 18

Apple Pay

Wallet

Apple Pay is managed in the Wallet app.

- A mobile payment service by Apple.
- Make secure payments in person, apps, & on the web.
- Used on iPhone, iPad, Mac, Vision Pro & Watch.
- Both credit and debit cards can be used.

- iPhone must be signed into your Apple Account.
- Cards must be supported by issuing company.
- Bio-metric authentication used on iPhone:
 - Passcode, Touch ID or Face ID used.

Set Up, adding cards

Tap Wallet

Cards added, will be empty for first time user.

Tap + to add a card

Default card, front of stack

Tap

Adding a Card

After card number is entered, and a few seconds for verification, the card will be ready for use.

Tap to select one

Enter card (3 ways)

- Hold chip in the card near top of iPhone.
- Use the camera to enter the number.
- Manually (may need to enter security code)

Apple Pay - iPhone - iOS 18

Using Apple Pay

Changing the Default Card

- The first card added is the default card.
- If more than one card & want to change the default:
- Tap & hold & drag new default to front of stack.

How to Pay with Face ID

- Double click the Side button.
- Authenticate with Face ID.
- Hold top of iPhone near card reader until you see Done or a checkmark.
- A Ding will also sound.

Using Apple Pay

How to Pay with Touch ID

- Double click the Home button.
- Authenticate with Touch ID.
- Hold top of iPhone near card reader until you see Done or a checkmark.
- A Ding will also sound.

How to Pay with another card

- When default card appears, tap it:
- Choose another card.
- Hold top of iPhone near card reader until you see Done or a checkmark.

Apple Pay Settings

Tap Settings,
Tap Wallet &
Apple Pay

Settings
for Wallet

Scroll
to page bottom

Another way to add cards

